Defendants.)

This matter is before the court on defendant Nzingha Simmons' Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [47]. The court has communicated with the parties. Counsel needs additional time to resolve this matter short of trial. The co-defendant does not object to the request for continuance. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [47] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for defendants, Todd Kowal and Nzingha Simmons, now set for February 1, 2022, is continued to March 15, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and March 15, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: January 20, 2022.

BY THE COURT:

United States Magistrate Judge
